Design Recommendations to help you stick to your budget

PERSONAL FLOWERS

1. Make a statement with the bridal bouquet but keep Bridesmaid's bouquets simple.
2. Keep flowers for children very minimal. ie. A single rose bud in the flower girls hair, or hire one of our baskets with preserved flowers inside.
3. Try to be open minded when it comes to flower varieties. Trust me to choose the best seasonal ingredients that fit with your colour theme and design aesthetic. This will allow for more flexibility at the markets, allowing your dollar go further.

THE WEDDING CEREMONY

1. Ditch pew ends, and instead have a focal statement surrounding the couple.
2. Repurpose anything you can from your ceremony to your reception. ie. Beautiful urn arrangements can be reused on your guest table, or a ceremony arbour can transform into a stunning bridal table backdrop framing the couple.
3. Make a statement with foliage. Not all arrangements need focal blooms, many seasonal foliages are so textural and can create beautiful shapes.

THE WEDDING RECEPTION

1. Make a statement at the Bridal table. Most of your reception photos will feature this area, so it will be lovely to have something to frame you on the night.
2. Keep guest tables simple, with bud vases and candles.
3. Repurpose anything you can from your ceremony to your reception. ie. Beautiful urn arrangements can be reused on your guest table, or a ceremony arbour can transform into a stunning bridal table backdrop.
4. Do not underestimate the power of candle light. It is so romantic and changes the atmosphere of the room.
5. If you want tall arrangements, do 3 or 5 to add height, with the rest of the guest tables having low candles and bud vases.
